Second Collections: There will be a change to the second collections over the next couple of weeks. Next weekend, the second collection will be for The World Apostolate of Fatima and the Fabric Fund collection will take place the following weekend. There will also be a retiring collection next Sunday following the Pause for Hope service.

An important part of our November devotions is the blessing of the graves. All services are at 2pm at the following cemeteries:

Saturday 2nd November at 3pm – Oscott Cemetery

Sunday 3rd November – Brandwood End & Quinton

Sunday 10th November – Lodge Hill & Widney Manor

Sunday 17th November – Kings Norton & Widney Manor

Sunday 24th November – Wythall & Robin Hood

We welcome into our Parish family Emma Karezlev and Tambudzai Chikoto who were Baptised last weekend, and Elliot, Elin, and Elaine Chikoto who were received in the Catholic Church.

Parish Tote: The numbers drawn this week were 07, 09, 12, and 13. Nancy Mannion and Fiona Peyton both got three numbers and shared the £100 prize.

Pause for Hope ecumenical service of prayer and music, for all those affected by cancer, will be held in St. Dunstan's Church on Sunday 20th October at 3.00pm. Supported by Churches Together in Kings Heath, it is an opportunity to remember loved ones, pray for patients, carers, medical professionals, and those searching for the cure to cancer. Contact Deacon David Fairbotham 07948379545 or dcn.david.fairbotham@rcaob.org.uk

Live Streaming at St Dunstan's can be accessed through the Parish website. The area of church that can be seen on the camera is shown on both noticeboards in church. If you do not wish to be seen, please sit further back from the front. If you wish to receive Holy Communion out of view of the live stream, please approach the minister on the right of the Sanctuary.

Live Streaming at St Jude's should be up and running this week. Consent forms will need to be completed by everybody whose image will be live streamed (e.g. musicians, readers and Eucharistic Ministers). Anybody under 18 must ask their parent to sign the form on their behalf. You do not have to give your consent, but it is unlikely that you will be able to continue in your role without giving it.

READINGS FOR SUNDAY MASS

FIRST READING

Wisdom 7:7-11

I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not to be numbered.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R: Fill us with your love so that we may rejoice.

Make us know the shortness of our life
that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever?
Show pity to your servants. R:

In the morning, fill us with your love;
we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Give us joy to balance our affliction
for the years when we knew misfortune. R:

Show forth your work to your servants;
let your glory shine on their children.
Let the favour of the Lord be upon us:
give success to the work of our hands. R:

SECOND READING

Hebrews 4:12-13

The word of God is something alive and active: it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessed are you, Father,
Lord of heaven and earth,
for revealing the mysteries of the kingdom
to mere children.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING

Mark 10:17-30

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth.

Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.'

Peter took this up. 'What about us?' he asked him. 'We have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'I tell you solemnly, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, children or land for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not be repaid a hundred times over, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and land – not without persecutions – now in this present time and, in the world to come, eternal life.'
